1 October 2006.

Dear Darren,

I should like to confirm that Varley & Gulliver Limited have successfully tested a 1.5m high Modular Steel panel H4a W3 vehicle restraint system in accordance with EN1317-1: 1998 and EN1317-2: 1998 on the 31 July 2006 with a dynamic deflection of 0.8m and a working width of 1.0m with ASI level B. The parapet was tested on a 0.6m wide plinth with anchorage fixing centres at 1.5m and the vehicle wheels did not leave the rear of the plinth during anytime either of the vehicle impacts.

A full report will follow in due course.

Regards
